Mr. [redacted] letter has been read with interest.
However, it lacks certain details which we must know in order to consider him for an assignment. I have, therefore, asked our Personnel Office to arrange an interview with him. As soon as they have had an opportunity to talk with him, I shall be glad to inform you of any employment possibilities.

Your letter from Mr. [redacted] is returned herewith, as you requested. We have taken the liberty of copying it for our records.

Honorable Sterling Cole
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Cole:

We have carefully considered your letter dated 1 March 1956 with which you enclosed a letter you have received from Mr. Frank [redacted] recount of his experiences has been read with extreme interest. Because his letter lacks some details with which we must be aware to consider him for an assignment with us, I have asked our Personnel Office to arrange to interview him as early as possible. After we have had an opportunity to talk with him, I shall be glad to inform you of any employment possibilities.

I am returning Mr. [redacted] letter to you. I have taken the liberty of copying it for our records. Thank you for your interest in this organization.

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
Lieutenant General, USAF
Deputy Director
